LOCAL AGENTS WANTED.

We desire to procure the services of a local agent in every Postoffice District in the State. Will our friends act, or procure the services of some efficient person in our behalf? Believing that the circulation of the Democrat may be materially extended, we make this appeal to our friends in its behalf.

☞Now, that the rebellion is run down, the Bramlette party of this State felt great apprehension that Kentucky was going to join it. They were not half so much alarmed when there was real danger. They did, however feel a danger not threatening before, and that was the danger that they might lose the offices. This was imminent, if the people of this State all voted. This would have been a worse calamity than the success of the rebellion, hence the unnatural efforts to suppress the votes, which were eminently successful. None but loyal men ought to vote or hold office. We are all the loyal men in the State, therefore we only should vote or hold office. So, to save Kentucky, it was necessary to superintend the polls under martial law. The experiment will startle the country, but still it was a natural result of civil war, and it was, perhaps, unreasonable to expect anything else. The State Government is now in the hands of men many of whom promised well, and we shall see how they perform. They admit the great evils in the Administration, and promise reform after the rebellion is put down. How they will get along, when opposition to these evils is rebellion itself, we shall see. General Thomas put soldiers under guard who refused to cheer for the policy of raising negro regiments. This refusal was rebellion. A refusal to indorse this policy or to aid it is part of the rebellion, and the rebellion will not be over until all such opposition is at an end. We shall see the turnings and twistings of these Union men, as they call themselves.

The Democracy at the end of their names they will be good enough to drop, as the Democrats North will deride all their pretension to the name. Their mode of conducting elections doesn't suit that school of politics. We have now a new era in State politics. States were supposed to have reserved rights once, but these have disappeared South and North. Indeed, they can't live in civil war, if they ever live after it.

HOW OUR DIVINES TALK ABROAD.—We clip from the Edinburgh Weekly Herald and Mercury the following, which shows how an American Divine talks to the people of Scotland. He seems to speak as if he were posted as to the past, present and future intentions of President Lincoln and his party in relation to slavery:

LECTURE AT HAWICK ON THE AMERICAN WAR.

Dr. Sturtevant, President of the Independent College in Illinois, delivered a lecture in the Cross Wynd U. P. Church, Hawick, on Tuesday evening last, on the subject of "The War in America and Slavery." James Douglas, Esq., of Cavers, occupied the chair, and introduced the lecturer in a brief but eloquent speech, in which he expressed his deep sympathy with the downtrodden black race in America, and his ardent desire that the result of the present conflict between the North and South would be the freedom of the slaves.

Dr. Sturtevant began his lecture by stating that all the Abolitionists, and nearly all the religious public of the North, are supporters of Mr. Lincoln. He knew from personal acquaintance with Mr. Lincoln, and from his public speeches, that he had long been opposed to slavery. It was anti-slavery views that caused him to be selected as President of the Republican party; and it was because he held these views that the Southerners seceded. Dr. Sturtevant argued that the contest is, as expressed by Mr. Lincoln, whether the United States are to be all free or all slave-holding States, and said that nothing short of total abolition could terminate the war. In the course of his lecture he exposed many of the fallacies put forth in this country as to the cause of the quarrel, and showed that slavery and nothing else was the cause of it; and that so far from emancipation being only now adopted by the North, it had always been the leading principle with President Lincoln's party. At the same time it was President Lincoln's duty and wisest policy not to push his abolition principles further than he was supported by public opinion and by the Constitution. The lecture was, for the most part, a narrative of facts, which, however, as the Chairman said, was most essential to a proper understanding of the American question by the people of this country.

☞It may be proper, constantly and strongly, to impress upon the army that they are the mere agents of civil power; that they have no more authority than other citizens; that offenses against the law are to be examined, not by a military officer, but by a magistrate.—[Washington.

The above is a part of Gen. Washington's order to the military sent to put down a rebellion in Massachusetts, and shows how little he understood about putting down rebellions compared to what is known at Washington in this enlightened age. Washington thought the Constitution was sufficient; Mr. Lincoln thinks he has learned better. Washington thought the army was but the "agents of civil power;" Mr. Lincoln considers the military power not only above the civil power, but above the Constitution. What would Washington have said, if it had been proposed in his day to control a State election by the military power of the General Government?

☞We are glad to know that some of the strongest Administration men look gloomily at the manner in which the State election was managed. No man who has any regard for the rights of States can make any defense or apology for it. Let those rejoice in success who can rejoice over an election supervised at Washington. We have various authentic accounts of the suppression of votes in different places; but we shall try to avoid any statements not authenticated. The plain truth is, the people of this State were disfranchised and deprived of the right to vote according to the Constitution and laws of the State. The lesson taught is ominous. What are we to expect next? is the inquiry. This is no election, is the remark of men who have always stood firmly by the Union.

☞A Lieutenant came to the polls at Mt. Washington, with fifty cavalry soldiers, after twenty-four votes had been polled for Wickliffe and three for Bramlette, and demanded to see the poll-book. He ordered the Judges to suppress the names of all the Democrats, which was done.

☞The editor of the Journal said yesterday morning he would not say much about the election. He, however, did say a good deal; but he will never tell the truth about it; that any one may bet on.

☞The history of the election of yesterday closes out all pretensions of the Administration party in this State to a union with the Democracy of the North. We shall now be done with that absurdity.

☞There was no vote in Owen county of consequence. The military were at the polls. The people were intimidated by the presence of arms.

☞At Newcastle, before breakfast, seven votes were cast for Wickliffe. After that the Democratic ticket was suppressed entirely.

☞At Bardstown, Lieutenant Colonel Butler, of Indiana, suppressed the entire vote for Wickliffe and other Democrats.

MEXICO.—It is reported that the French are marching on Matamoras from Vera Cruz, and that the Mexicans are resolved to defend themselves to the last extremity. It is evident that the French have many more victories to win before they can make the Austrian Arch Duke Maximilian, or the young Jerome Patterson Bonaparte, sit very securely upon the throne which they are endeavoring to construct for that unfortunate country. It is possible that the Mexican throne, like the throne of Greece, may for some time go a begging.

The Mexicans had an Empire and an Emperor forty years ago. Iturbide ruled but ten months, when the crown tumbled from his head and he vamosed from Mexico. Subsequently he returned and was executed as a traitor. It may be very doubtful whether the newly proclaimed Mexican Empire of Maximilian I. will endure as long as that of his imperial prototype, Augustin I. The Mexicans, it is true, are said to be very enthusiastic for the new empire, but Maximilian I. said, in a sketch of his career, written by himself, that on the proclamation of his Empire, the unusual cry of the army and the people was, "Long live Augustin I.!" The Mexican people are almost as fickle and volatile as their conquerers, the French, and there is no knowing by their cry to-day what it may be to-morrow. If their new Emperor shall put on the imperial purple, it may be torn off from him with a crimson hue in a few short months.

This is no new subject with Maximilian. He was offered the Mexican crown by a monarchial party there several years ago. It is rumored that he will not now accept the honor; that the French Emperor knew this, and caused the offer to be made to him only as a compliment; and that the real purpose is to place a Southern Secessionist and a graduate of our West Point upon the throne—Jerome Bonaparte, late of Baltimore—and to protect him there by French and Southern bayonets. It is supposed that a union will be effected with the Government of Jeff Davis, and that the whole design is to play the devil with this little Government of the United States. Perhaps it is a part of the scheme to annex to Mexico the Southern States, and place all under an American-French monarchy, and ultimately extend the admirable institutions of that region over the whole of North America. It remains to be seen whether this Administration will do anything about it.

One of the New York papers publishes the following story purporting to come from Washington:

WASHINGTON, July 27.

Nothing can exceed the consideration that has been created in radical circles here by the Mexican news that has just been received from New York by telegraph. It is understood to mean nothing less than the bestowal of the diadem of the Montezumas upon young Jerome Bonaparte, the grandson of the deceased ex-king of Westphalia, and of Mrs. Patterson of Baltimore, with the express understanding that Mexico, under the protection of France, shall ally herself with the Confederate States. Louis Napoleon, unwilling to reverse the decree of Napoleon I, which declared the marriage of his brother with Miss Patterson null, and which legitimized his subsequent espousal with the daughter of the King of Wurtemburg, has, nevertheless, always sympathized with the Catholic opposition to the policy of the founder of his dynasty respecting that measure, and has been mindful that none of the successors of Pius VII., have even withdrawn the solemn protest of the church against the latter union.

He dislikes and fears Prince Napoleon, while he entertains as deep an affection as it is in his nature to experience towards his American second cousin. He has proved this by marks of affection which have been equally significant and gratifying to the French people, ever since the great distinction for bravery, which was acquired by Captain Bonaparte, as he is called in the Crimean war; and at the very onset of the Mexican invasion, it was stated by Paris correspondents of nearly every influential American journal, that the throne ostensibly to be created for Prince Maximilian of Austria, was really destined for his young favorite from Baltimore.

The umbrage which was taken by Napoleon III. at the course pursued, in 1861 and 1862, by Prince de Joinville and his nephew, and their efforts to create sympathy for the fallen house of Orleans, by sending them to this country as volunteer soldiers in the Federal army, was openly expressed at the time, and it was generally understood that, in his own peculiar way, he would take reprisals which should never be forgotten. From that hour he has been slowly, mysteriously, but surely, pursuing a policy, the meaning of which now begins to dawn upon the minds of the Washington authorities. He is believed to have held in the hollow of his hand a Prince Imperial of France, who is at the same time a secessionist of the Southern States of America, a graduate of West Point, an army officer of approved skill and gallantry, and the idol of the French soldiery, whom at the appointed time he could launch upon the field of conflict with tremendous power, and, backed by France, with weight sufficient to turn the scale against the North.

Of course, all this is conjecture, but it is the conjecture of minds profoundly agitated by the fears it has engendered.

It is stated here by some who have facilities for information that the Juarez party in Mexico have sent emissaries to the Government, offering to cede Mexico to the United States, provided assistance is rendered them to drive out the French and conquer the Church party.

THE CROPS.—We have received from the Agricultural Department at Washington another monthly report of the condition of the crops. We last month gave from the same source a table of the condition of the crops for May; this brings together the result of the observations to the end of June. We find the following summary of the table of Mr. Newton, Commissioner of the Department of Agriculture, prepared to our hand, showing the condition of the crops throughout the country to the end of June:

Winter Wheat.—Surface sown (taking the country at large) one-tenth greater than in 1862—Average appearance of crop one-tenth less promising than usual. In the great wheat-producing States of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maryland, Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin, the average is still better, being but a half-tenth below it. Ohio is the only large wheat-producing State that falls below the general average, being two-tenths below. The injuries from Hessian fly, rust, freezing out, and all other casualties are so small as to amount to but one and one-third tenth.

Spring Wheat.—Extent sown about the same as in 1862—promise of crop less than one-tenth below the yield last year.

Barley.—Extent sown one-tenth greater—prospect per acre a half-tenth below.

Indian Corn.—Extent sown slightly greater than last year—prospect in June one-tenth below.

Oats.—A slight increase of extent on last year—considerably injured by drouth—prospect eight and two-thirds as compared with ten to represent the yield of 1862.

Tobacco.—Extent sown three-quarters greater than in 1862—prospect one-tenth below average yield per acre.

Grass.—Rather large amount reported in meadow than in 1862—considerable injury from drouth—prospect two-tenths below good crop.

Flax.—Extent sown two-tenths more than double that of 1862—prospect one-tenth below a good crop per acre.

Sorghum.—About one-quarter increase on area sown in 1862—prospect less that one-tenth below a good crop.

Thus it will be seen that while the weather and injuries from other causes, render the prospect of the crops generally not quite so good, up to July first, as they were a year ago, the extent sown is likely to be enough larger to make up the deficiency thus created in most instances, while in some it will do much more. Unless rains have interfered with harvesting operations during the past fortnight, we may hope that the large yield of winter wheat in 1862 may be equalled the present season; that the product of spring wheat will be at least 85 or 90 per cent. as large as in 1862; and with a favorable autumn, that Indian corn may be upwards of 90 per cent. of the heavy yield of last season.

It is calculated that the wool clip of the present season will amount to within a fraction of 80,000,000 lbs., against about 50,000,000 for the loyal States, according to the census of 1860.

☞The military would not allow the polls to be opened for the Democratic candidates at Bloomfield, it is said.

STATE CLAIMS FOR RAISING TROOPS.—The following claims have been received at the Treasury Department for reimbursement, on account of expenses incurred by the States named, in raising troops previous to muster into the U. S. service. On settlement at the Treasury the direct taxes of the States are to be deducted from the several amounts:

Maine	$1,051,069 51
New Hampshire	879,383 71
Vermont	689,306 76
Massachusetts	2,185,677 85
Rhode Island	550, 90 93
Connecticut	1,872,863 46
New York	2,018,968 66
New Jersey	511,200 97
Pennsylvania	2,416,419 23
Virginia	46,918 87
Kentucky	1,796,587 47
Ohio	2,231,601 71
Indiana	2,511,582 35
Illinois	3,580,613 14
Michigan	634,992 21
Iowa	679,388 20
Wisconsin	1,086,303 77
Minnesota	21,760 02
Kansas	12,351 04
Nebraska	192 09
Total	$25,701,991 31

These claims cover the expenses of the States for raising volunteers under the act of Congress, approved July 17 and 27, 1861, but do not cover the expenses incurred in raising drafted men under the act of July 17, 1862. These expenses, after being approved by the Governors of the States, amounting to $40,000,000, are sent to the Adjutant General, and by him forwarded to Major Green for examination.

A FIGHT.—We learn that a portion of our forces, under command of Lieutenant Colonel Morrow, was attacked on Sunday, by about five hundred rebels, with six pieces of artillery, and after a stout resistance was compelled to retreat. The rebels captured and took away with them one hundred and fifty mules and six army wagons. They burned five wagons, but did no damage in the town. They were closely pursued by Wolford's cavalry, and had to flee for dear life, losing about twenty-five prisoners captured by our forces. Captain Dry, of Wolford's cavalry, led the advance, and was the first among our soldiers who entered Stanford.

☞George Willey, who is accused of the murder of Provost Marshal Stevens in Rush county, Ind., was arrested, a few days since, at Venice, Butler county, Ohio, by three men named John R. Bevis, Crosby Vaughan and John Green. He had threatened to kill anybody who attempted to take him, but his captors didn't "scare worth a cent," and he concluded if they wouldn't "cave" he would. He was with Morgan's band during a portion of its march through Ohio.

DUTCH IRON CLADS.—A letter from the Hague states that the two Chambers of the States have voted a bill granting a credit to the Minister of Marine for transforming a part of the Dutch fleet into iron-clad vessels. The two Chambers have also adopted a literary convention between Holland and Spain similar to those which have been concluded by France with different countries.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—Treasury notes—ones altered to tens—have been put into circulation. Persons are apt simply to look at the denominational figures when Treasury notes are offered. A close inspection of the edges of the paper will reveal the green paint. As there may be plenty of tens offered, it would be well to scrutinize them.

☞A special dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette, dated the 4th, says:

Four hundred rebel prisoners, captured from Scott's command, passed through to-day for Louisville.

Major-General T. L. Crittenden left to-day for his command in the Army of the Cumberland.

☞There was a large fire at Columbus, Indiana, on Friday morning. The probable loss is eighty thousand dollars. The sufferers are Mrs. Hunter, Mr. John McCabe, Mr. Laughlin, Lieut. Wm. Terrell, Mr. Gibson and Mr. Graves.

THE RIOT.—A soldier wrote lately from near Fort Wagner:

We have just heard of the fall of Port Hudson and the New York riots. Shame! shame! shame! The whole army will be horrified at the selfishness of the New York stay-at-homes. Is the North worth fighting for?

☞General Thomas F. Chickering is Provost Marshal of Port Hudson. Chickering's piano forte fications are very complete and effective.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

A TRIFLE.

This busy world is far too wide
In one poor heart to dwell;
To one alone the thoughts confide,
That make thy bosom swell.
The heart is soon to ruin hurled,
When given up to all the world.

Ah! rather on one faithful breast,
One feeling heart, recline,
Where all thy dearest hopes may rest—
Make it thy sacred shrine.
Who such a heart to his can hold,
Doth all the world with love enfold.

There is one little girl eleven years old, and two boys, one about fifteen and the other about eleven.

The axles of the cars were melted down until they almost touched the road-bed, and the wheels were bent inward. THE PRIVATEERS.

Operations of the Florida—The Brig W. B. Nash Destroyed by the Pirate—The Chase of the United States Steamer Ericsson by the Florida—Report of Captain Coffin, of the Brig W. B. Nash, &c.

[From the New York Herald, 30th ult.]

By the arrival of the brig John Freeman at this port yesterday, six days from Bermuda, we learn that the Florida was in that port on the 22d inst., caulking and bailing, and that she did not intend leaving for three days.

We now know that the Florida is the privateer which chased the Ericsson a few weeks since, while she was on a cruise in search of the Tacony and other privateers.

The Florida has transferred her stealings of a half million of silver bars, from a ship recently captured, to the armed blockade runner Robert E. Lee, and it is reported that she will attempt to run into Wilmington.

Captain Coffin, of the brig W. B. Nash, destroyed by the Florida, reports that he sailed from York on the 3d of July, with a cargo of lard and staves. July 8, latitude 40, longitude 70, at three P. M., made a steamer to the eastward, standing to the westward, apparently under full head of steam. She passed about five miles off. She had four smoke-stacks, and was a side-wheel boat. (The Ericsson, chased by the Florida.) Soon after made another steamer to the eastward, which came along and passed us. Soon after she bore up for us, and came along side, with the stars and stripes flying. Hailed us to heave to, as they wished to send a boat aboard; and as the boat boarded us they ran up the Confederate flag on the steamer, and the officer of the boat pronounced us a prize to the Confederate flag. Ordered myself and part of my crew to take part of our clothes and my papers and go on board the steamer, which proved to be the Florida.

My charts and instruments were confiscated, the brig sacked and set on fire; they then steered for a schooner in sight, which they found abandoned. She was a whaling schooner, hailed from Provincetown, and was set on fire. They then steered off the coast as fast as possible, under steam and canvass, and landed myself and crew in Bermuda on the 16th of July. The Florida's officers have been lionized by the authorities, and were saluted from the fort in the harbor of St. George. She is armed with six broadside guns and two pivots; is not as fast as has been represented, and her machinery is out of repair. She does not steam over eight knots and a half. The discipline on board is bad. She, together with a number of blockade runners, was in port, the Florida having transferred a portion of her valuable spoils on board the Robert E. Lee, to be taken to Wilmington, North Carolina.

The cargo of the W. B. Nash consisted of 686,532 pounds of lard and 5,867 staves.

DESTRUCTION OF TWELVE MORE VESSELS BY THE FLORIDA—THE PIRATE WITHIN FIFTY MILES OF NEW YORK, ETC.

HALIFAX, July 29, 1863.

The brig Devonshire, with Bermuda dates to the 21st of July, arrived to-day.

The privateer Florida arrived at Bermuda on the 16th to repair damages to her machinery and take in coal. She anchored at first outside, and on the following day was permitted to enter the harbor. She saluted the British flag and the salute was returned. A considerable interchange of civilities has taken place between the officers of the Florida and the shore. The papers teem with communications laudatory of the craft, officers and crew.

Since the advices of the 17th, the Florida has destroyed twelve other vessels. The name of one only is given, the brig William B. Nash.

The Florida lately ran within fifty miles of New York, it is said, in search of the Ericsson, which she chased some time; but the Ericsson escaped in a dense fog. She shortly after destroyed the Nash.

There had been serious altercations between the members of the Thirty-ninth regiment and the men of the rebel blockade runners in Bermuda; but the authorities promptly interfered and restored quiet.

Exaggerated Southern accounts of Lee's raid were brought by the blockade runners. The Venus, from Wilmington, with dates to the 10th, says Harrisburg is in Lee's hands, and other accounts are quite as correct.

The Gazette says there is destitution of fuel in port, and supplies from England are hourly expected.

An extension of the regulation period of stay has been granted the Florida.

The following blockade runners arrived at Bermuda on the dates mentioned: July 9, the R. E. Lee, from Wilmington, N. C., the Venus, from do.

SHOCKING CATASTROPHE—A WHOLE FAMILY OF SEVEN PERSONS DROWNED WHILST GOING TO CHURCH.—A shocking catastrophe occurred yesterday (Sunday) morning in Black river Township, Lorian county. Mr. Herwig, a Protestant German, with his wife and five children, set out about eight o'clock in the morning in their wagon to attend church at Amherst. About an hour afterward, as some men were crossing the bridge at Beaver creek, they saw two horses struggling in the water. The neighbors were alarmed and the horses extricated. When the carriage was drawn out, the bodies of Mr. Herwig, his wife and the five children, comprising the entire family, were found in it quite dead.

It is supposed that in crossing the bridge the horses became frightened and backed off into the river, where, becoming entangled in the carriage, all the seven were drowned. The oldest of the children was a girl about fourteen years of age.

Mr. Herwig has a married sister in this city whose name is not known. The funeral of the family took place at Amherst at ten o'clock this morning.—[Cleveland (O.) Herald, 28th.

AN INVETERATE OFFICE-SEEKER.—Thomas E. Bramlette, the Abolition candidate for Governor of Kentucky, who, under Burnside's proclamation of martial law and the orders of his military subordinates throughout the State, is the only Gubernatorial candidate that can be voted for there at to day's election, is literally an "inveterate office-seeker." Just before the war commenced he was a candidate for Congress, then held the office of Commonwealth's Attorney in the Greensburg Circuit, and after a short tenure became Circuit Judge. He then ran for Judge of the Court of Appeals, but his constituents signified with marked emphasis at the polls their desire that he should not occupy the office. Next he became Colonel, United States District Attorney, Commissioner for the collection of forfeited rebel bonds, and Brigadier General. Although two of his appointments are of a military character, he has never been in active service. Now he becomes Governor and chief agent for any schemes that may be maturing by the Abolition party for the purpose of "saving Kentucky to freedom."—[St. Louis Republican, 3d.

☞Gen. Gillmore is supposed to be one of the most accomplished artillerists in the army. After he had graduated at West Point, he was employed for several years in experiments upon the power of projectiles upon earth, wood and earthworks, and, it is said, took photographs every time that a shot was fired. At Fort Pulaski, he brought his skill to actual experience; bringing his guns within 600 yards, he knocked the fort to pieces as if it were a house of cards.

☞It is stated by the Virginia (N. T.) Bulletin that it has been found that, by cultivating the alkali lands in California and Nevada Territory in the sugar beet for three years, their sterility may be removed. Thus vast bodies of land hitherto denuded of vegetation may be reclaimed. The experiment was made in the Santa Clara Valley, California, upon land covered by alkali to the depth of six inches, forming upon it a sheet as white as snow.

☞One business man in Chicago returned to the assessor as the profits of his business for the year 1863 the handsome sum of $300,000, upon which he paid a tax amounting to $10,000. The proprietors of a distillery in Buffalo have just paid a Government tax of $50,180 16.

☞A Washington dispatch says: Surgeon J. B. Brown, of the Eighty-second Illinois, is dismissed the service, with loss of pay and allowance, for disloyalty and treasonable language.

☞A prominent speaker, at a Republican gathering in Ohio, said that he "expected to spend an eternity in company with Republicans," to which a ripe old Democrat replied that he "rather thought he would, unless he repented of his sins."

SPERRYVILLE, Aug. 1.

The Fourth Pennsylvania and a regiment of cavalry were dispatched by Gen. Gregg yesterday morning upon a reconnoissance to Little Washington, twelve miles from here. They encountered a company of rebel cavalry about one hundred strong, and drove them through the town, capturing a private of the Second Virginia, who had been directed by an order from Gen. Fitzhugh Lee to purchase flour and bacon for the brigade in the vicinity of Waterford, Loudon county.

It has been ascertained that a brigade of rebel cavalry was posted between Little Washington and Springville. A private captured had in his possession some correspondence, indicating that the rebel army is in a very desperate condition, and bitterly bewailing the error of the recent raid into Maryland and Pennsylvania, and predicting that if war should much longer be waged Lee's army will be starved to death in the mountains.

[Special to the Herald.]

Gen. McClernand, having been relieved from the command of the Thirteenth army corps and ordered to remain inactive in the State of Illinois, has tendered his immediate and unconditional resignation of the office of Major General United States Volunteer forces. The General is unwilling to hold a commission and receive pay from the Government without an opportunity to serve the country in a position appropriate to his rank.

The Secessionists here are making themselves happy over the report that Jeff Davis is about to raise a great army of negroes upon the promise to them of freedom and lands, but large slave-holders in this region express the opinion that he will venture upon no such policy—in fact, he dare not trust slaves. It will be remembered the remark was attributed to Mr. Lincoln, in his first essay on the emancipation scheme, that he had reason to believe that the rebel government was looking to something of the kind, and might be before him in the movement.

Rebel prisoners of rank brought to this city some time since say that Gen. Evans, of Ball's Bluff fame, had committed all sorts of excesses in the neighborhood of Leesburg, and, among other things, destroyed property in and about several of the finest mansions and grounds in that vicinity. He is the only General on either side who has indulged in wholesale vandalism.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3

The ship Ocean Pearl, from Hong Kong with 300 Chinese passengers, has arrived. Her papers give accounts of a terrible earthquake at Manilla on the 3d of June, ruining half of the city and damaging every building. Two thousand lives were lost.

The bark Fordhas arrived from Kagnaways, Japan, on June 24th. The Japanese Government had paid four thousand dollars indemnity for the murder of Richardson, but refused to surrender the murderers, alleging them to be subjects of Prince Sotzuma, who refused to give them up.

The Government pretended its inability to take them forcibly. The British Admiral proposed to proceed to the Sotzuma principality and take them. The Government declined, contending that it would be essentially a war upon Japan. Negotiations concerning the murderers are still pending. Foreign residents were very apprehensive that a war was inevitable.

WASHINGTON, August 3.

It is again asserted, on most undoubted authority, that the main body of Lee's army is encamped between Rapidan Station and Orange Courthouse. It is positively known that this was the position of the rebel army on Wednesday last. Lee's depot of supplies is at Gordonsville, but the latter point is now the place of distribution. Two divisions of Longstreet's corps now occupy Culpepper.

It is officially stated that the total number of Union wounded in the three days' battles at Gettysburg, is about 14,000. A fraction over 20,000 wounded still remain in the hospitals there.

[Special to the Cincinnati Commercial.]

WASHINGTON, August 3.

The draft proceeded quietly in two wards in this city to-day, about 1,500 names being drawn, including all classes and conditions of society. One third of the number drawn were colored people.

The total receipts at the office of Internal Revenue for the month of July, amount to five million two hundred and ninety-eight thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven dollars and eighteen cents. This includes nothing from tax on incomes, and is considerably larger than the receipts for any previous month since the opening of the office.

A dispatch from General Grant reports that in his operations he has paroled thirty-one thousand men and sent eight thousand North, making thirty-nine thousand prisoners captured by him since the first of April, in addition to five thousand head of cattle and five hundred thousand rounds of ammunition captured near Natchez. He has taken over two thousand mules, of which he has sent one thousand to General Banks.

Adjutant General Thomas left for the West to-day to resume his duties in the organization of negro regiments.

Important documents, showing the location of the forts and their strength in and about Washington, have just been captured, en route for Richmond, having been forwarded by rebel spies in this city.

The JOB DEPARTMENT in the Democrat Office is now ready for all kinds of printing. Bills, Circulars, Cards, Posters, &c., printed at the shortest possible notice, and at prices to suit the times.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS—Tuesday, August 4.—The first case presented was that of Asa Chambers, who was bailed out of the workhouse.

A motion by the City Attorney to continue the docket until the first Monday in September, by the consent of the attorneys at the bar, was agreed to.

Charles Miller, William Evans and Richard Cunningham, a case which was partially heard on Saturday last, was called up this morning, and each required to give bail in $300 to answer in Circuit Court for stealing boots from sundry persons. All went to jail to await a trial.

John Craddock, drunk and abuse of his family; bailed by Turney in $100 for three months.

Peace warrant by Peterson vs. Dawey and wife; continued until Saturday.

Peace warrant by J. T. Bright vs. John Weaver; dismissed by consent.

The result of martial law is obvious; no bloody faces and heads as usual just after an important election. The bayonet is a powerful argument.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was another exceedingly hot day, the thermometer in the shade standing at ninety-three, without a breath of air stirring. About three o'clock the clouds began to gather dark and heavy and there was every appearance that we would have a hard rain; but to the disappointment of all the angry clouds passed over the city without any water of consequence falling. We learn that in the country, about five miles from the city in all directions, the rain fell in torrents for the course of nearly an hour to the gratification of the farmers. The rain had the effect of cooling the atmosphere for a short time, but afterwards the heat became intense and the mercury again went up.

☞ The train from Lexington brought down about sixty-five refugees from East Tennessee, who intend mostly to join the Federal service. They represent the state of affairs as being sad in the extreme. The whole country seems devastated by both armies, leaving nothing for their families to live upon. The crops do not amount to anything.

THANKSGIVING.—The President of the United States has set apart Thursday next, the 6th inst., as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer to "Him who knoweth and doeth all things well," for the recent victories of the American armies at Gettysburg, Vicksburg, Port Hudson and elsewhere.

ON A STRIKE.—We learn that the stone cutters en masse were on a strike yesterday, parading several of the principal streets. They have been getting from $1 25 to $1 75 per day, and now demand $3 for their services. Stone cutters are generally pretty good on the strike, for experience is everything now-a-days.

AN OVERDOSE.—A young woman in the upper portion of the city has recently been resorting to the very bad habit of using morphine. Yesterday morning she took an over dose, was made insensible, and died in a few minutes. Her name was Minerva Fuse. Young ladies, let this sad case be a warning to you.

ARRESTS.—Messrs. Tripp & Cragg, music dealers in this city, were arrested yesterday evening by the military and a number of plates used by them in publishing Southern music were seized. Mr. Cragg was released immediately, but Mr. Tripp was placed in the military prison.

☞ Mr. M. Muldoon, who was incarcerated in the military prison on Monday, was released yesterday. He occupied the "soft side" of a board during the night, and dreamed of the creeping things of earth, which he seemed to be confident were "still so gently o'er him stealing."

☞ An old gentleman from Hoosier, the possessor of a team, got on a spree in town yesterday, and came near being run over by wagon which he was driving. He said "he was all right, bnt his old 'oman didn't think so."

☞ Abont twenty-five citizens who were arrested on election day and incarcerated in the military prison, were yesterday released. There are at present a very large number of rebel prisoners confined within its walls.

☞ Persons going to Nashville who have been residents of that city, are required to be recommended by dispatch from General Rosecrans. Passes are issued at Colonel Mundy's office.

☞ We learn that the Rev. Jos. S. Large has resigned the rectorship of St. John's Episcopal Church, and the Rev. J. J. Talbot has been unanimously elected to fill the vacancy.

☞ Two soldiers were arrested by the military yesterday and turned over to the civil authorities. We did not learn the charges preferred against them.

☞ Detective Hooper arrested two deserters yesterday. They were placed in Barracks No. 1 for safe keeping until they are transferred to their regiments.

☞ Song of the citizens who were put in the military prison on election day:

"I would not live alway; I ask not to stay."

☞ Water melons, musk melons, and cantelopes are becoming plentiful in our markets.

☞ Major General Crittenden was in the city yesterday.

INQUEST No. 128—Held August 4th, 1863, at Shippingport, on the body of George W. Fears, aged eight years. Verdict—Came to his death between 6 and and 7 o'clock P. M., August 3d, 1863, by drowning in the canal at Shippingport.

Inquest No. 129—Held August 4th, 1863, at Shippingport, on the body of John T, Brannon, aged eight years. Verdict—Came to his death between 6 and 7 o'clock P. M, August 3d, 1863, by drowning in the canal at Shippingport.

Inquest No. 130—Held August 4th, 1863, at the house of Belle Burdine, on Lafayette, between Floyd and Preston streets, on the body of Minerva Fuse, aged eighteen years. Verdict—Came to her death at 9 o'clock and 30 minutes P. M., August 4th, at the place above-named. Cause of death spasms, superinduced by the excessive use of morphine.

JAS. C. GILL, Coroner.

THE MAMMOTH SHOW.—The great circus and menagerie combined, of Robinson & Brother, will commence in this city to-day and continue for three days. This show comes to us well recommended, and has been highly spoken of by the press in all the cities where it has exhibited. The tronpe is composed of a number of the finest artistes in the country, including the great humorists, Jay and Seamon, who are said to be the funniest men that ever entered a ring. The champion four and six horse rider of America is also connected with this mammoth concern. In addition to the circus, there will be found in the menagerie a variety of animals, which are said to be the very best selection ever exhibited in this country. Let no one fail to attend.

SAD ACCIDENT.—TWO BOYS DROWNED.—On Monday evening about six o'clock two little boys named John T. Brannon and Geo. W. Fears, each eight years, were playing on the bank of the canal, in Shippingport, when, unfortunately, Brannon slipped and fell into the canal. It is generally believed that Fears jumped into the water to assist his little companion, when they locked themselves in one embrace, and death laid them in a watery grave. Mothers, here is another warning to you.

☞ A chap named Everson, from this city, was shot at by a man named Bolden, on the mailboat at Cincinnati, on Monday. It appears that Everson and Bolden's wife had been upon terms of intimacy for some time, and had come to this city several times and registered their names as "mon an' wife." The two men were arrested, when she went Everson's bail and left the injured husband in the gloomy prison to consider the merits of a true woman.

A SAD AFFAIR.—On Friday last a youth named Smith, was seriously, if not dangerously wounded, at his home near Cambridge, Ohio. He was raking hay in a field when the horse took fright and ran away. The boy was knocked down, and two teeth of the rake entered his body—one in his breast and the other in his side. Hopes are entertained of his recovery.

A BECOMING TRIBUTE TO GENIUS.—The friends of the late distinguished President of Center College, Rev. Lewis W. Green, D. D., will be gratified to learn that already active measures are in progress to erect, in the beautiful cemetery in Danville, a monument worthy the reputation of this eminent scholar and divine.

UNTRUE.—The report that the Thirty Second Kentucky regiment ingloriously fled at Stanford is untrue. Lieut. Morrow says: "With sixty men I held the whole rebel force, one thousand strong, back for one hour, although they used four pieces of artillery against me during the whole time."

☞ Quite a number of rebel prisoners are being sent North over the several railroads from Cairo. They are mostly those who desire to abandon the cause of the Southern Confederacy, take the oath of allegiance and become what they always should have been—good citizens of the United States.

☞ On Saturday Mr. John Avey and Mr. John Leonard were driving out in a buggy. In crossing the railroad at a point above Cincinnati a locomotive ran over them, killing Mr. Avey and the horse instantly, and Mr. L. is not expected to live. They were both citizens of Cincinnati.

☞ Five prisoners confined in the Covington jail effected their escape on Monday morning by means of a false key. Their names are John W. Swayne, the murderer of Peter Finley, Patrick Dowd, Thomas Jordan, Charles Timberlake and William Timberlake, charged with larceny.

MISSOURI TOBACCO.—Two hogsheads of choice Missouri tobacco were sold yesterday at the Boone Warehouse at $31 and $49 per hundred pounds. The first was purchased by H. Holbrook, and the second by L. L. Anderson.

☞ The many friends of Mr. Milton McGrew, a true Union Democrat, handsomely elected him their Representative in Spencer county, on the day of election. In the Taylorsville precinct the whole Democratic ticket was elected.

ALDERMAN IN FOURTH WARD.—The vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Peter was filed Monday by the election of Mr. Carter, the vote standing: Carter, 110; Brown, 29; Davis, 28.

☞ There were no mails brought up from Nashville last evening. The agent on the lower end of the road missed the connection. All will be right to-day.

☞ The passenger train from Nashville came in last evening crowded with a big trip of passengers. Capt. Fish Henry was in command.

☞ Theodore Cross and F. B. Webb were the only two persons released from the military prison yesterday. They took the oath and were at once set at liberty.

☞ Another large lot of rebels, about three hundred, among whom are a lot of Scott's cavalry, will be sent to Camp Chase to-day.

☞ There are quite a number of persons in the military prison who are perfectly willing to take the oath of allegiance and go back to their homes and families.

☞ Nicholas Hope was released from the military prison yesterday upon taking the oath of allegiance.

☞ George W. Mitchell took the oath, gave $5,000 bonds yesterday and was released from the military prison.

☞ Thirty rebel prisoners were brought up from Nashville last evening and put in the military prison.

☞ A gentleman has our thanks for Nashville papers of yesterday.

LOUISVILLE, August 1, 1863.

Rev. C. B. Parsons:

DEAR SIR: On Friday evening, July 31st, 1863, the two boards of the General Council convened and unanimously passed a resolution requesting you to deliver, at an early date, a eulogy on the life and public services of the late John J. Crittenden. We, the undersigned, were appointed a committee from both boards of the General Council to wait upon you and solicit you to comply with the request expressed in the resolutions. By complying you will very much oblige many friends, and, besides, in our judgment, do much good.

If the above meets your approval you will please select the time and place.

Yours truly, WM. S. MURPHY, J. B. KINKEAD, JOHN ORILL.

Messrs. Murphy, Kinkead, and Orill, Committee of the General Council of the City of Louisville:

GENTLEMEN—In response to the resolution of the Honorable Council, communicated to me through you, requesting me, at an early date, to pronounce a eulogy on the life and public services of the illustrious John J. Crittenden, late deceased, I have the pleasure to say that, howevever humble may be the effort, with such poor abilities as I posses, I will essay the task so honorably assigned.

I respectfully suggest the time as Thursday next, the day of the National Thanksgiving, at half-past ten A. M., and the place, the Walnut-street Methodist Church.

Very truly, &c., your ob't serv't, C. B. PARSONS.

"THE OLDEST INHABITANT."—We notice in the Gallipolis Journal the death of Col. Robert Safford, at the advanced age of 100 less 3 years. He cut the first stick of timber in Gallia county, and was probably the oldest resident of the State of Ohio, if not of the West. He did service as an officer in the war of 1812, and was anxious to gird on the sword in defense of the same government and country in 1863.

☞ We learn that the Rev. James Barnett, who has during eighteen years labored as a missionary at Damascus, in Syria, and Cairo, in Egypt, will lecture this (Wednesday) evening at the A. R. Presbyterian lecture room, on Seventh street, near Chestnut. Subject—"Condition and prospects of the missionary work in Syria and Egypt."

☞ A telegram received at Gen. Heintzelman's headquarters, states that Col. Lowell, Second Massachusetts cavalry, who started in pursuit of Mosby and his gang, overtook them and recaptured all the wagons, stores and horses.

The dispatch mentions nothing of the whereabouts of Mosby.

☞ "Say, Bill, are you an American citizen?"

"Don't I look like a nigger?"

"Good evenin'."

"Call again."

☞ Of all the list of sick and wounded who were lately transferred from Vicksburg to their respective States, we do not find the name of a single Kentucky soldier.

☞ A lady has been drafted in Lewiston, Maine. Go it girls! We will hold your bonnets and remain single until your return.

☞ Quite a number of Morgan's men are still prowling around through Indiana, endeavoring to escape into this State.

SEVENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—Gen. Boyle has the following majorities: Lincoln county, 630; Boyle, 500; Mercer, 300.

☞ Three hundred and fifty of Johnson's rebel army arrived at Indianapolis on Sunday. They are stopping at Camp Morton.

☞ Messrs. Ehrick and Palmer, news dealers, and Mr. Hester, the express messenger, have our thanks for late papers.

☞ There were one thousand two hundred and eighty-nine soldiers in the Camp Dennison hospital on the 1st inst.

☞ A lot of rebel officers will be sent from the military prison in this city to day to Johnson's Island.

☞ The Enquirer says that "Cincinnati is full of dogs." Send them all off to Washington.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. Hester, the clever messenger, for latest papers in advance of the mails.

☞ Jo Snapp, company H, Eighteenth Kentucky, died in the hospital at Nashville Monday.

☞ Fourteen rebel prisoners arrived at Nashville from Winchester on Monday.

☞ It is believed that the draft will take place in Indiana in a few days.

☞ Yesterday was another long, weary, warm and quiet day in the city.

DOMESTIC.—Pure Ohio Catawba Brandy, manufactured from the catawba grape, much purer and cheaper in price than the brandies of the Old World. ☞ We believe that home enterprises should be fostered by every community, even when the results obtained may not be quite equal to those obtained elsewhere, but when we can do better at home than abroad there is every reason why we should patronize local industry and enterprise. In this connection we notice the unexpected success of the shirt manufactory of Messrs. Green & Green, of this city. Though it has been in operation only about eight months it already gives employment to about thirty hands. They turn out better work than can be bought in the stores, and their shirts are made from measure and warranted to fit.

ROOFING.—The attention of the public is called to my elastic paint and roofing cement, which is considered by all who have tested it to be the best and cheapest material of the kind now in use for tin, iron, or metal roofs. C. Coggeshall, Jefferson street, between Fourth and Fifth, Louisville, Ky.

WORLD'S FAIR, LONDON, 1863.—The highest premium has been awarded for the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines at the World's Fair, recently held in London, England, with all other sewing machines in competition. This result was not unexpected of course, but is still highly complimentary to American genius, and a triumph more noteworthy considering the public sentiment in England. This marked recognition of this machine not only adds to its prestige, confirming, as it does, the numerous awards here, but should satisfy the public that if any sewing is done Wheeler & Wilson's is the machine to do it.

OBITUARY.

Died on Monday morning, July 27th, 1863, at his residence, in Anderson county, Ky., CHARLES N. KAVANAUGH, aged 40 years, leaving an affectionate wife and two interesting children, with an aged mother and a large circle of friends to lament his loss.

The fatal shot of death "was leveled at a noble heart," when our regretted and departed friend was called to surrender his natural life and enter the untried region of the spirit land. While his mortal remains rest in the cold grave, we know that his spirit, immortal as the God who gave it, lives in a better world. Though removed from us yet his memory will be kept "green in our hearts" by a thousand recollections of his pleasantry and humor in social life, as well as his honesty and integrity, which elicited the respect and confidence of those who best knew him. He bore a painful sickness without murmuring, and met his last enemy with a composure and fortitude becoming the real Christian and man. Expressing his love for liberty and virtue, he took an affectionate and pathetic leave of those who stood around his dying bed, and then quietly resigned himself to the will of Him who gave him being. When reflecting on his many amiable and agreeable qualities, we feel inclined to say in the expressive language of the poet:

"—— take him all in all,
We ne'er shall look upon his like again."

DIED,

At New Albany, Ind., on the 4th inst., at 2 o'clock, A. M., HENRY I. TILEY, in the 23d year of his age.

The funeral will take place in New Albany, Ind., on Wednesday morning, at 10 o'clock. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

Of flux, July 30, 1863, in Georgetown, Ky., at the residence of Dr. Hauo, JONNIE, infant son of S. C. and C. G. Long, of this city, aged 12 months and 18 days.

☞ Let those who have doubted the virtues of BULL'S CEDRON BITTERS, if any such there be, read the following Certificate from gentlemen well known in this community, and doubt no more.

Its general introduction into the army will save the lives of thousands of our soldiers.

LOUISVILLE, KY., June 3, 1863.

We, the undersigned, have seen the good effects produced by the use of DR. JOHN BULL'S CEDRON BITTERS in cases of general debility and prostration of the system, and believe its general use would prevent disease and relieve much suffering. Among our soldiers particularly would this be the case, especially those who are exposed to miasmatic influences in the Southern climate.

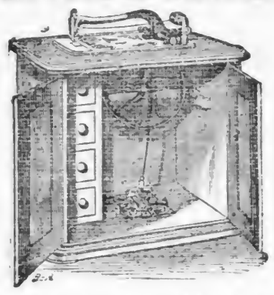
GROVER & BAKER'S



Family Sewing Machine.

WHY IT IS BEST.

1. It is more simple, durable, and less liable to derangement than others.
2. It sews from ordinary spools, and no rewinding of thread is necessary.
3. It sews with equal facility all fabrics, the most delicate, and the heaviest, with all kinds of thread, silk, cotton, or linen.
4. It sews less or more strong and elastic that it never breaks, even on the bias.
5. It fastens both ends of the seam by its own operation.
6. Its seam, though cut at every sixth stitch, remains firm, and neither runs or ravels in wear.
7. Its seam is more plump and beautiful, and retains its plumpness and beauty after washing, better than any other.
8. Its seams can be removed in altering garments, AFTER PROPER INSTRUCTION, without picking or cutting them.
9. Watching and varying the tension upon the threads necessary in other machines, is unnecessary in this. The tension being once adjusted on the Grover & Baker Machine, any amount of sewing may be done without change.
10. It makes beautiful embroidery without any change of arrangement, by simply inserting threads of suitable sizes and colors for this purpose. It is the only machine that both embroiders and sews perfectly.

The Grover & Baker Machine has taken the First Premium at the State Fairs last held in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Iowa, Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, North Carolina, Alabama, California, including every State Fair at which it has been exhibited in 1862, and at a great number of Agricultural and County Fairs.

☞ The work made upon the Grover & Baker Machine has received the First Premium at every Fair in the United States where it has been exhibited to this date.

GROVER & BAKER S. M. CO. furnish Machines of the same patterns and at the same price, making either the GROVER & BAKER STITCH, or the SHUTTLE STITCH, as customers prefer, with the privilege of exchanging.

☞ THE NEW AUTOMATIC CLOTHING MACHINE, No. 6, has no equal for that work.

☞ HEMMERS, BINDERS, CORDERS, BRAIDERS, QUILTING GUAGES, TUCKERS, &c., of the latest and most improved styles, furnished at the lowest cash prices.

GROVER & BAKER'S SEWING MACHINE COTTON will be found superior to any other in the market. It is manufactured by the best Egyptian manufacturer, and put up on spools of 500 yards, expressly for the Grover & Baker S. M. Co.

In consequence of extensive and timely arrangements with the manufacturers, we are able to sell this superior cotton 10 to 25 per cent. below the prices of other leading manufacturers.

GROVER & BAKER'S MACHINE TWIST, now recognized as the best in the market, furnished in any quantity desired.

Skirmish Near Jackson, N. C.

LEAVENWORTH, Aug. 4.

The steamer Robert Campbell arrived from the mountains, where she had been with government supplies.

Passengers from the Upper Missouri reports the Sioux Indians very desperate, and say there is no place where a white man can be safe.

The Campbell grounded near the mouth of Yellow Stone. The Indians on the bank made signs of friendship, and the Captain sent a boat with six men ashore. Just as the boat landed the Indians fired on them, killing three and wounding one. The crew of the Campbell returned the fire, but with what effect is not known. The steamer was boarded by the Indians and robbed of all they wanted.

The steamer Belle Peoria was also aground, and fears were entertained that the Indians would burn her, as the river was full of canoes.

The Government has taken possession of the Nellie Rogers and Shreveport, two light draught vessels, to transport supplies.

The Sam Gaty, is at Fort Randall, loaded with supplies, but can neither move up or down.

It is thought that the expedition against the Indians this season will prove a failure on account of low water.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 1st inst. has been received at Fortess Mouroe, and contains the following:

As a partial relief from the unwelcome news which we have been receiving from the South, we have now the intelligence that our forces have gained a decided victory in Louisiana. The President yesterday received a dispatch from Lieut. Hardee, stating that Gen. Dick Taylor had an engagement with the troops under Gen. Banks, and that he had completely routed them, capturing 6,000 prisoners.

The Dispatch publishes dispatches received from Weldon and Goldsboro, N. C., announcing that the Federal forces had been repulsed near Fort Branch, or Jackson, on the Roanoke river, and had returned to Plymouth.

The Dispatch says: The bridge over Tar river, on the Wilmington and Weldon railroad, burnt by the Yankees, has been rebuilt, and trains are passing over it. Freight is received and sent over the road as usual.

Passengers by the Petersburg train yesterday report all quiet at Weldon.

FORTRESS MONROE, August 4.

The Norfolk Virginian contains the following:

News has been received here of the cavalry and artillery expedition under Col. Spear. They crossed the Cheerwan river at Winton, N. C., and proceeded to Jackson, thirteen miles from Weldon, near the Roanoke river, where the enemy was discovered in strong force.

Our advance made a splendid charge on the rebel advance and drove them back, capturing seventy prisoners. Our loss was two killed and three wounded. We captured sixty bales of cotton and one hundred horses. It rained incessantly since the expedition started, rendering the roads nearly impassable.

The men have suffered great hardships.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 1st says it is reported that a force of Yankee cavalry have appeared at Strong's store, in Stafford, fifteen miles east of Fredericksburg.

General Neal Dow will proceed on his trip to Mobile this morning, escorted by officers of the Confederate police. We are not informed of the purpose of sending him to Mobile.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.

The draft in this city has been completed. It embraces two thousand white and eight hundred and eighteen colored men. Among the drafted are thirteen clergymen, many members of the City Council and several telegraph operators; also reporters, printers, lawyers and representatives of all classes of business. A party of drafted men attempted yesterday to escape from the city, but were apprehended as deserters.

Advices from the army of the Potomac say the enemy yesterday sent a reconnoitering force toward the Rappahanock, in the vicinity of Kelly's Ford, probably to learn our position and strength, but after a skirmish the foe was driven back.

It is generally believed that up to yesterday Lee had not received any re-enforcements of any consequence from Richmond, but the rebels have been sending supplies to Fredericksburg, as if they intended to reoccupy it in strength.

Information has been received that guerrilla parties scour the country between the Rappahannock and Potomac, south of the Occoquon.

[Special to the New York Post.]

WASHINGTON, August 4.

Direct advices from the front say that the Army of the Potomac is inactive and is likely to remain so for some time.

The first installment of conscripts reached the camp yesterday. From two to four hundred are expected daily.

The rebel army lies between the Rappahannock and the Rapidan, Lee being at Culpepper.

Furloughs for twenty and thirty days have been granted by Gen. Meade.

The draft in this city was resumed to-day, without any disturbance. Among the persons drafted are eight from the office of the Chronicle and the pastor of the Catholic church in the Third ward.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, August 4.

The American Dental Convention held its ninth annual session here to-day. Seventy members were present. Dr. B. Roberts presided in the absence of the President.

The morning session was occupied in organizing and electing officers. The following officers were elected:

President, J. Taft, of Cincinnati; Vice President, M. W. Shelfield, of New London; Corresponding Secretary, W. H. Atkinson, of New York; Recording Secretary, C. N. Pierce, of Philadelphia; Treasurer, A. Hawes, of New York.

BOSTON, August 4.

The amount of the contributions received by the Christian Commission in this State for the benefit of sick and wounded soldiers, reaches $53,726.

There was a large wool sale this afternoon, attended by dealers from this and other cities. Wool sold at prices ranging from 36 to 38½c. per pound, and the California grade ranged from 32 to 39, averaging about 35c.

PARIS, Ky., Aug. 4.

The following is the official vote of Bourbon county:

Governor—Bramlette 1305, Wickliffe 118. Congress—Clay 621, Buckner 131, Boyle 2. Colonel John Pratt, for the Senate, and R. H. Hanson, for the Lower House, both Union men, are elected without opposition. The whole Union county ticket is elected by a large majority.

BALTIMORE, August 4.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad will certainly be re-opened through by the 8th inst., for passengers and freight. Bills of lading, with the usual guarantees, will be issued tomorrow. The entire line is now free from the enemy, and fully guarded by the Federal forces.

WHEELING, VA., August 4.

The Western Virginia Legislature, in joint session to-day, elected W. Hadley, of Morgantown, and P. G. Vanwinkle, of Parkersburg, United States Senators—the former on the first and the latter on the eighth ballot.

TORONTO, Aug. 4.

The members of the Chicago, Milwaukee, and Detroit Boards of Trade, numbering three hundred and thirty, arrived here this evening on the Grand Trunk railway, en route to Montreal and Portland.

CINCINNATI, August 4.

The Kentucky election was largely Union. So far as heard from Clay and Smith were certainly elected to Congress.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., August 4.

The steamship Pacific went ashore on the 3d, near Trepassy. No particulars have yet been received.

OSWEGO, N. Y., August 4.

The draft took place to-day, and everything passed off with good humor.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.

The sale of $960,000 worth of 5-20's is reported to-day.

☞ The restriction placed by the Government on the trade between St. Louis and New Orleans are complained of by the merchants of St. Louis as burdensome and unnecessary. St. Louis is infested by officials appointed by the Treasury Department, whose sole business is to obstruct instead of facilitating legitimate trade between loyal citizens on the route of the Mississippi.

The system of permits ought to be abolished as soon as possible. They are obnoxious in themselves, and are rendered more so by the favoritism with which they are granted. But what can be said in justification of the following official notice, issued by order of the Treasury Department:

"CUSTOM HOUSE, ST. LOUIS, July 25.

"Until further instructions from the Treasury Department, merchandise will be permitted to go to New Orleans by paying five per cent. on the invoiced value thereof. Steamboats clearing for that port will be required to enter into bonds, with good and sufficient securities, to be approved by the collector, in the sum of $20,000, that no merchandise will be landed at points not designated on the manifest. R. J. HOWARD, Collector."

Whence does Mr. Chase derive his authority to place a tariff on the internal domestic trade of the United States? Why are shipments from New York to New Orleans permitted to go free of duty, while citizens in St. Louis are required to pay a tariff of five per cent.? Is it the higher law or the Constitution of the United States that sanctions this assumption by Mr. Chase of the power to levy a tariff on the interchange of commodities between the States? Are these trammels on our own commerce calculated to develop the resources and increase the wealth of our heavily taxed citizens? Government will do well to let our merchants and commerce alone.—[N. Y. Globe.

It is no difference about legal authority; it's a war measure. That dispenses with law.

☞ A burglar, who broke into a house at Euclid Creek, Ohio, during the absence of the family, and pocketed spoons and other "portable property," in getting out of the window stepped on an insecure cover of a cistern, broke through, and was drowned.

☞ There is a world of beautiful meaning in the following rather liberal translation from Freville:

As the clock strikes the hour how often we say "Time flies!" when 'tis we that are passing away.

☞ Shackelford and Morgan (not two Generals) were up before the Mayor of Wheeling a few days ago. The Mayor let them down again by fining them "suthin."

ARRIVALS.

Major Anderson, from Cincinnati,
Armenia, from Vicksburg.
Lacrosse, from Madison.

DEPARTURES.

Major Anderson, to Cincinnati.
Armenia, to Cincinnati.
City Belle, to Memphis.

The Undine, Capt. Conway, has been for sometime repairing, painting, and refitting at Madison, and will make her appearance here next Monday, August 10th, to resume her trips in her old trade, Louisville, Madison, and Carrollton, leaving here every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 12 M. Her officers are clever and obliging, and have always given general satisfaction to passengers and shippers. au4 dtd.

The river was falling last evening, with four feet water in the canal. Weather clear and very hot.

SUNK.—The Ida May, loaded with government mules, and bound for Nashville, struck a snag Monday, at Oil Creek, and sunk. She lies in shallow water, and can be raised without much difficulty. The Liberty went down to take her trip.

The Armenia arrived up from Vicksburg for Cincinnati, discharging at this point a lot of tobacco.

A tow-boat arrived from Pomeroy with four barges of coal.

FOR CINCINNATI.—The Gen'l Buell is the mail-boat at noon.

HENDEASON.—The J. T. McCombs is the regular Wednesday packet, leaving at 5 P. M.

The steamer M. V. Gillum leaves for Nashville at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the city wharf.

NEW STEAMER JULIA.—This is the name of another splendid boat turned out by our mechanics and artizans for the St. Louis and New Orleans trade. She was built under the auspices of Capt. Pegram, of St. Louis, her principal owner. She is the second boat he has built here in the past year; and our builders have vied with each other in turning out a superior job. She is the best adapted for the trade for which she is built of any boat built here for some time. Her arrangements for passengers are unsurpassed by any boat afloat. All her cabin arrangements and entire outfit have been personally superintended by Capt. Pegram, a gentleman of taste and refinement. The cabins of the Julia, in point of style and general internal and external arrangement, cannot fail to please all who are so fortunate as to procure passage on her. The state-rooms are all large and airy, and furnished in the very best style, with wardrobe and wash-stand in each.

Her dimensions are as follows: Length of hull 240 feet, floor 39 feet, hold 7 feet. She has two engines with cylenders twenty-seven inches in diameter, seven feet stroke, working a waterwheel thirty feet in diameter, with thirteen feet bucket, which will make her one of the fastest as well as one of the best carrying boats now afloat. She has four six-fined boilers, twenty-six feet long, and forty-four inches diameter, with a large doctor engine and steam freight heister and capstan. Her cabin contains forty-four rooms, and is very neat in style, and reflects great credit on the builders.

The cabins are furnished in the very best style, with the best tapestry, carpets, and rosewood furniture, and painted a pure white, relieved with beautiful landscapes and gold.

The hull of the Julia was built by Messrs. D. & J. Howard, of the Jefferson ship-yard, who always turn out good work.

Engines, boilers, and sheet-iron work are from the famous foundry of Dennis Long, and reflect great credit on the builder.

Her cabins was built by McClavens & Co., who have eclipsed themselves on this boat.

The painting was done by Mr. W. O. Williams, who never fails to give satisfaction to all who employ him. The stoves and copper work was done by Bridgeford & Co.

The pilot wheel and rigging was made and put up by J. J. Hair.

The furniture was ohn Linom which is a guarantee that it cannot be beat.

The upholstry, curtains, &c, were made and furnished by Whemhoff & Dickenson, and is a very superior job. The carpets and oilcloths were furnished by G. W. Small.

Ship chandlery was furnished by Sherley & Woolfolk. China ware, lamps, chandaliers, silver ware, table cutlery, and all the pantry outfit, were furnished by the well-known house of C. J. Walton & Co.

The Julia will leave for St. Louis to-day, at 12 o'clock, in charge of Capt. McCoy, her future commander, ably assisted in the office by Captain Brown, who will take pleasure in ticketing passengers to St. Louis and all way points.

We advise all those going to St. Louis to procure passage on the peerless Julia.

The Nashville Press of yesterday has the following:

The river was falling slowly yesterday, and the pier-mark shows less than twenty-three feet at this point. Most of the fleet of boats which has been lying at the landings departed during the day.

The Cincinnati Commercial of yesterday says:

The only arrivals yesterday were the Jennie Rogers, from St. Louis, and the new steamer Viola, from the ship-yard.

The departures were the Lavinia Logan, for Parkersburg, with a fair trip, and the Stephen Decatur, for Nashville, with a government trip of mules. The Norman left last night for Louisville to go into the government employ at that point.

We understand that parties at St. Louis have purchased the famous steamer Mars, alias Robert Allen, from Babbitt, Good & Co., of this city, at $15,000, cash.

The New Albany Ledger of last evening has the following:

The Gillum was taken over to Portland by Capt. Mark Anthony yesterday evening, where she will load for Nashville.

Mr. Daniel Spere, formerly of Switzerland county, Indiana, died at his residence in St. Louis on Friday, July 31st, in the 73d year of his age. Mr. Spere was an old steamboatman, and piloted the first steamboat that ever came from New Orleans to the Ohio river. He was a boatman before the application of steam to the navigation of the Mississippi.

The Nebraska has been laid up at St. Louis. She will be extensively altered and improved, so as to come out in the guise of a new boat.

Capt. Reeder's new boat, building in this city, is to be provided with the machinery of the big Eclipse—36 inch cylinders, 11 feet stroke. The boat is 49 feet beam and over 300 feet long.

Two more river packets by the capture of Port Hudson fell into our hands—the Red Chief No. 1 and Starlight. They had been moored up Thompson's creek for safety, and on Thursday morning last were towed out. Both are in good order, and that much abused individual, Uncle Sam, has plenty of use for them.

We clip the following from the New Orleans Delta of July 24th:

The steamer Omaha, Captain Richards, from Vicksburg Monday last, the 21st inst., arrived yesterday afternoon, with 299 wounded and sick from that place, and bound to Mobile.

We learn from Captain Richards that General U. S. Grant had his headquarters at that place, General Logan being in command of the post, and General McPherson in charge of the troops of the garrison.

A fleet of Federal gunboats and transports arrived from the Yazoo river on Monday night.

The steamer Imperial, hence for St. Louis, arrived at Vicksburg on Monday and proceeded on her journey.

The steamers South Wester, L. M. Kennett, Silver Wave, Iberville and J. H. Groesbeck were discharging at Vicksburg, and the Forest Queen, Gladiator and Lancaster were Kentucky Military Election Orders.

The following is another of the military orders which the approaching Kentucky election has produced:

"HEADQUARTERS UNITED STATES FORCES, }
"SMITHLAND, KY., July 16, 1863. }

"General Order.]

"The County Court Judges of the counties of Trigg, Caldwell, Lyon, Crittenden, and Livingston are hereby directed, in appointing Judges and Clerks for conducting the State elections in August next, to observe strictly the laws of Kentucky, which require that such Judges and Clerks shall be unconditional Union men.

"Judges and Clerks so appointed are hereby directed not to place the name of any person on the poll books, to be voted for at said election, who is not a Union man, or who may be oppo-ed to furnishing men and money for a vigorous prosecution of the war against the rebellion against the United States Government. The Judges and Clerks are further directed to permit no person to vote at said election without taking the oath required by the laws of Kentucky, unless said person so presenting himself to vote is personally known to the Judges to be a Union man.

"Any person violating this order will be regarded as an enemy to the Government of the United States, and will be arrested and punished accordingly.

"By order of THOS. JOHNSON,
"Lieut. Col. Commanding.

"OATH.

"I do solemnly swear that I have never entered the service of the so-called Confederate States of America, and that I have not been engaged in the service of the so called Provisional Government of Kentucky, either in a civil or military capacity, and that I have never, either directly or indirectly, aided in the rebellion against the United States or the State of Kentucky. So help me God."

Here is another order, nearer home, issued by the Provost Marshal of the District, immediately opposite this city:

"OFFICE PROVOST MARSHAL 6TH DIST. KY., }
COVINGTON, July 31, 1863. }

"Capt. J. T. Mapher:

"You will order such military force to each voting precinct in your county as you may deem sufficient to enforce General Burnside's Order No. 120, of this date.

"It must be distinctly understood that if Judges of Elections knowingly allow disloyal votes to be cast, they will be immediately arrested and sent to Camp Chase, there to remain during the war.

"By order of G. W. BERRY,
'Provost Marshal."

Each judge of election has been furnished, as we are informed, with a copy of the above.

A PROFITABLE SCOUT.—Lieutenant-Colonel Vimont, of the Seventh Kentucky cavalry, has just returned from an important scout in Wilson, Smith and DeKalb counties. The Colonel furnishes us Chattanooga papers as late as the 26th July, together with other interesting rebel documents.

The scout was under command of Colonel Pickens, and was composed of the Third East Tennessee cavalry and Seventh Kentucky cavalry. Colonel Vimont compliments Colonel Pickens very highly for the gallantry of himself and command. The Seventh Kentucky also deserves praise. The expedition brought in a large number of prisoners, bushwhackers and conscripters, among whom was one Captain Battle, son of General Battle, who will, we understand, be held as a hostage for Captain Harris, of the Third East Tennessee, now in the Knoxville jail, and whose father recently paid seventy-five thousand dollers to keep him from hanging. These regiments will do to tie to, and we shall give more particulars hereafter.—[Nashville Press, Aug. 3d.

THE REBELS IN KENTUCKY.—The action of Gen. Burnside in declaring the State of Kentucky under martial law is calculated to deceive the general public in respect to the extent of the recent invasion of that State by Pegram's force. The incursion of the rebels was, or is, by no means a formidable one, and though both Frankfort and Lexington were at one time considered threatened, the advance of the enemy has in reality amounted to n thing. At our last accounts, the Confederates had been driven with loss out of Lancaster, several miles south of the Kentucky river, and had also retreated from Stanford, some distance still further below. It is stated, moreover, that the rebels are hastily retreating toward the Cumberland river. But a very small part of the State has been troubled at all by Pegram's men. Some persons might infer from Gen. Burnside's order that Kentucky was being overrun by the forces of the enemy, which is far from being the case.

Office of JAY COOKE,

Gen'l Subscription Agent for 5-20 Loan,

No. 114 SOUTH THIRD STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

NATIONAL BANKING ASSOCIATIONS.

COMMUNITIES AND CAPITALISTS NOW CONTEMplating the formation of National Banking Associations, under Secretary Chase's Bill, passed at the last session of Congress, are reminded that the 5-20 LOAN, now for a limited period to be obtained AT PAR, may after the first of August be withdrawn from the market.

The improved condition of military affairs and the constant succession of victories, together with the completion of the preparations for the issue of the Five Hundred Millions of Legal Tender interest bearing notes, or Treasury notes, renders the issuing of further loans or permanent loans, at present, exceedingly doubtful.

The Loans of the Government, maturing in 1881, are now selling at six per cent. premium. These would advance to 10 or 15 per cent. premium, if the Secretary of the Treasury should discontinue the sales of the 5 20's; and the 5-20's themselves would soon command a handsome premium should the demand for Government Loans, as the basis for banking or for investment, be at all active. It is possible that the secretary of the treasury may receive subscriptions to the 5-20 Loan for a long period, should more by any delay in the preparation of the notes for the supplying of the Treasury with funds, or should he, in view of the manifest benefits to the country from the present popular mode of distributing the Loans of the Nation among the PEOPLE—or to encourage the formation of the New Banks—decide to lower the said judicious to further extend the time of Subscriptions to the 5-20's at par. His views and intentions on the subject, of course, are unknown; therefore, the safest and wisest course is to subscribe at once, whilst a six per cent Bond, with the interest and principal payable in GOLD, can be had at par.

It will afford me pleasure to furnish full information in regard to the formation of the National Banks, and the necessary steps to be taken. Printed documents relative thereto will be furnished, at Washington, on application to Hon. Hugh McCullough, Comptroller of the Treasury, or by the undersigned. JAY COOKE,

AS THE AUTHORIZED AGENT OF THE FOLLOWing named safe, reliable, and justly popular Insurance Companies, Insurances will be made on Lives and every description of property at fair rates.

A division of an insurance risk among several Companies is regarded as safer and more prudent than a large amount in any one Company, I would respectfully solicit a portion of the business of my friends and the public. Losses promptly and satisfactorily settled.

Proofs of losses and adjustments made at this office WITHOUT CHARGE on all policies issued at this Agency.

Mutual Life Insurance Company,
NEW YORK CITY.

Cash Fund belonging to the members Insured $9,250,000.

All the profits are divided on the mutual system every five years among the members Insured.

The business of this Company is conducted exclusively on the Cash plan. No notes whatever are received for premiums, or paid back on claims for losses. The accumulations or dividends may be applied to increase the amount insured under the policy, or in an annual deduction from the premium. In the first instance, many cases are on record where the amounts originally insured have been more than doubled by the accumulations or dividends, and in the second, the annual reduction granted by the Company is LARGER THAN THE ANNUAL PREMIUM; in other words, that the policy has been entirely paid up for the original amount, and the policy holder, instead of paying any premium to the Company, is actually in receipt of an ANNUITY (to be still further increased by future dividends) amounting to several hundred dollars, for the remainder of life.

Rates, pamphlets and any other information may be obtained upon application at this Agency.
